

AUGUST SERMON SERIES

When someone says, “Let me tell you about my mother-in-law” you usually hear awful stories about dysfunctional families, overbearing mother-in-laws, and heartache. It’s like a plot from a bad movie! Thankfully this is usually just a stereotype.

The book of Ruth tells of a different kind of story, about a relationship between a mother-in-law and daughter-in-law and their deep commitment to one another. The story of Ruth and Naomi is one of heartache, grief and loss. Even though there are few references to God, or God acting in this story, it is also a story of God’s love, redeeming grace and faithfulness. God is a silent actor in this book.

Sermon Discussion Groups for The Book of Ruth

Groups meet for 4 weeks. Contact the group leader to sign up or for more information

- Sundays 10:00 am – Sermon Discussion Group @ Rosemount Campus, led by Dave Kitchel, dmkitch@visi.com (starting August 5)
- Sundays 11:30 am – Open Hearts & Minds - Women’s Group @ Rosemount Campus, led by Lori Maser, elmaser@msn.com (starting August 5)
- Sundays 6:00 pm – Sermon Discussion Group @ Rosemount Campus Chapel, led by Sherrie Holck, sholck@frontiernet.net and Karen Bruins, kbruins@thewellmn.church (starting August 5)
- Tuesday mornings 6:30 - 7:30 am – Men’s Group @ Rosemount Campus, led by Tom Montgomery, tlmontgomery@frontiernet.net (starting August 7)
- Thursdays 2:00-3:30 pm – Sermon Discussion Group @ Rosemount Campus, led by Pam Webber, pwebber0416@gmail.com (starting August 9)